

Chris McGhee

FATHER
HUSBAND
ADVOCATE

Chris's advocacy is deeply informed by his lived experience as the parent of a survivor of child sexual abuse perpetrated by a police officer.

After witnessing the devastating failures of the justice system, Chris took action by successfully getting a law passed in 2025 to enhance sentencing guidelines for mandatory reporters who assault children.

Audiences

Parenting Groups | Church Groups | Middle & High Schools | PTOs

Chris has since become a sought-after speaker to parent groups as well as a guest on podcasts, as well as the Washington Post, sharing his family's journey and raising awareness about institutional accountability, grooming, and survivor advocacy.

Chris currently sits on the Board for Stop Sexual Assault in Schools.

He is a certified DiSC™ facilitator, EQ-i 2.0 certified, and holds an MBA and a BA in Fine Art.
